

Dump Truck Crashes into Police Officer in His Vehicle

On Wednesday October 7, 2009 at 12:02 PM, a motor vehicle crash occurred at a road construction site at 25 Cabot Street between a ten wheeled dump truck owned by White Trucking and operated by Mr. Stephen Saldi from Groveland, MA and a vehicle owned by Officer Sean Connolly of the Beverly Police Department. At the time of the crash, a thunder storm was passing through the area. Officer Connolly, who was working the private detail at the construction site, entered his vehicle to put on his rain gear. While doing this, Officer Connolly and his vehicle were struck by the dump truck.

Officer Connolly and Mr. Saldi were both transported to Beverly Hospital's Emergency Room for evaluation. This accident is under investigation, and additional details will be released when available.
