BEVERLY POLICE OFFICERS AND CIVILIAN FREE MAN PINNED UNDER VEHICLE

12/13/18: On Sunday December 9, at approximately 6:00pm Officers Dave Gagnon, and John Vitale responded to an Elliott Street address after a male who was changing a tire had his leg pinned under the vehicle. Upon arrival, Officers Vitale and Gagnon began assisting the victim. A citizen who was working in the area saw the Officers and ran over to assist. Together, Officers Gagnon, Vitale and the civilian were able to lift the vehicle and free the victim who was transported to Beverly Hospital with a leg injury. Chief John LeLacheur praised Officers Gagnon and Vitale for their effort and professionalism during this call. The Chief further praised the quick actions and assistance given by the passerby during what was a very stressful situation.
